Tri-weekly Sentinel.
As customary, the proprietors of the Indiana State Sentinel will issue a tri-weekly sheet during the coming session of the Legislature. The best of Reports have been engaged exclusively for this paper, and no pains will be spared to give the fullest, earliest and most correct information on all subjects. The paper will be of double medium size, (same as the weekly) and afford at one dollar the session, in all cases in advance.

The proprietors would respectfully solicit the aid of their friends in procuring subscribers, as a very heavy expense is necessarily involved during the session.

Our contemporaries will confer a favor by giving the above a few insertions, which shall be reciprocated by every means in our power.

G. A. & J. P. CHAPMAN.

To Correspondents.
W. A. R. Mooreville.—We must express our obligations and tender our thanks to you, for your kind attention and favorable consideration. The new list of subscribers, accompanied by the cash, is certainly an example worthy to be followed—and we hope others will take your advice, viz.: "Any of our subscribers who would spend a few hours for a week, or so, to do as well as I have."

When "one in a hundred" do as much as our friend R. has done for the Sentinel, we promise to endeavor to repay them by every effort in our power, and to give them a better paper and more of it.

W. F. B. Tipton.—You can renew the club on the same terms. The "New York Weekly News" is discontinued, we feel certain. Ad dress of the "Dollars Newspaper," "A. L. Simmons & Co., Philadelphia."

Have mailed you a copy. We have mailed one, and will send the other of our semi-weekly, which you desire. That New York news, though, is rather silly—for the Democracy, and entirely disagrees with them, from being unacquainted to the waters of that celebrated river.

W. T. P. New York.—A friend wishes to know at what price he can purchase one of "Dean's double duck" guns, to weigh 8 or 9 pounds 1 or 2 inch bore, 24 or 30 inches length of barrel, for game and duck shooting." Please name cost and charges.

We neglected to state in our first announcement of our new partnership, that it was to take effect on the first day of December. We noted the fact for our last paper, but it was accidentally omitted. We state it now, as showing why the title has not been altered.

Trial of Dr. Coe.—The trial of Doctor Coe, brought by the State against him, relative to his acts as fund commissioner, was submitted to the jury on Saturday afternoon last. On Monday, the jury were discharged, being unable to agree. We understand that they were unanimous on one point, relative to a $2490 dollar transaction, in favor of acquittal. On the $20,000 one, we learn they stood 8 for conviction and 4 for acquittal.

More Whig Help.
Brother Deffrees, of the Journal, has rather a joke on us, in his Monday's paper, relative to "Old Betsey." It is not exactly correct, however. We did say, that if Mr. MEDLEY was elected to Congress, he should "sue herself heartily." We didn't have the chance; but we will lay a dime that the Whigs of this State, as well as of Ohio, would rather "pay the shot" for his election to Congress than see him again editor of the Statesman. And again: Brother Deffrees argues that he ought to have the State Printing, notwithstanding the State is Democratic some 4,000 votes. To this we demur. And the last reason is, if he goes on as he has begun, he is likely to head (one of us) distinctly, and get assistance without "buying them up!"

A young editor, (a banner it is said,) has made his appearance lately, who do not doubt will ere long, tread in his "father's shoes." Alas! that one should want more!

The New Albany Daily Bulletin of Nov. 9th admits that the whigs have been "opposed to the invasion (of Mexico) in all its progress." A few days previous to this it said—"the act which produced this unholy war is to be seriously deprecated by every American." &c. Actuated by such a spirit, the Bulletin has no occasion escape for heaping censure on the administration without the slightest reason. But this is not surprising; it is only following the lead of more influential federal papers; and it is only important as it goes to prove that the federal party are as true to their instincts now, as they were in the war of 1812. They attack the present war and the administration now, as they opposed the war of 1812 and the administration of Mr. Madison. The "Worcester (Massachusetts) Spy," of 1814, gave vent to its factious opposition, in the following language:

"We hope and believe the people will soon be convinced, that Mr. Madison is totally incompetent to hold the reins of government."

"This wanton waste of property, this perverse neglect of duty, is sufficient to brand any administration with eternal infamy."

WHITNEY'S RAILROAD.—The St. Louis Union observes that it would be well for the public to give due investigation to this scheme before endorsing it. The terminus at Green Bay will cause it to be of no value during the winter months, when the lakes are closed, and the route is longer than is necessary. Without considering the difficulties on this side of the South Pass, it may be well to ask how it is proposed to construct such a road from that point to the terminus on the Columbia river, through a mountainous district of 600 miles in extent! Our new acquisitions in Mexico may open up a route for a railway across the continent, far more advantageous than any farther north. We are far from being convinced, though not doubting the feasibility of Mr. WHITNEY's plan, that it is the most practicable, or the best that can be adopted.

The Lafayette Free Press urgently protests, "in the name of Christianity—of justice and humanity," against Mr. Wise's plan of capturing the castle of San Juan de Ulla by his balloon attempt. He thinks it would be "murdering" the whole community of "helpless and inoffensive persons" in Vera Cruz!

Pray, Major, when did the "helpless and inoffensive" inhabitants take possession of the castle? You are a little out in your geography. The destruction of the castle and all its force would no doubt save the lives of "helpless and inoffensive" persons in this city.

The Brooklyn American, of the 13th, contains some comments on the "character of Editors" in Indiana, in which some animadversions are made upon a late paragraph in the Columbus Gazette. We think that the editor of the Gazette must have very much regret the publication of the paragraph referred to, after reading the American's remarks upon it.

THE GREAT MAIL ROBBERY.—The St. Louis Mail, which was supposed to have been robbed lately, has come to light. The packages, containing a large amount of money, drafts, &c., were sent to the Dead Letter Office by mistake. Rather careless, some will say.

Elections.

ALABAMA.—The majority for COTTELL, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the District formerly represented by Mr. YANCY, of Alabama, is thirty, according to the National Intelligencer. The Whigs were ahead of the news again in proclaiming a victory in that District.

FLORIDA.—The Charleston Mercury declares that Mr. Cabell, the Representative elect from Florida, is pledged out and out against a protective tariff, and that otherwise he could not possibly have been elected.

MAINE.—The Boston Post gives the following as the result of the election in Maine: Democrats 60, no choice 26, Whigs &c., 64. Further trial will decide the question.

GEORGIA.—Official returns of the recent Congressional election in Georgia, show that the Democrats have a majority of 1,288 in that State.

MASSACHUSETTS.—The Federalists have carried this State as usual, by about 10,000 majority.

DELAWARE.—Sufficient returns have now been received to indicate the result. Mr. Tharp, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by a majority of 109, this being the first time the Democrats have elected a Governor for 20 years. Houston, Whig, is elected to Congress by a majority of 14 votes. The entire Whig ticket is elected for the Legislature in Kent, and a majority in Newcastle, whilst the Democrats have carried Sussex. This gives the Whigs a majority in the Legislature, on joint ballot, of two or three votes.

CAPTAIN SUTER.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says:

"We may next look for the appointment of Capt. Suter, the patriarchal Emperor of the Valley of the Sacramento, as Governor of Upper California, as he has been for a long time, in all but the name. He owns and cultivates a principality,—has all the Indians of the neighborhood in his employ; he supplies the Russians of the north with their wheat and provisions, he has some fifty white men engaged in his large operations, and employs several vessels in exchange of commodities. To keep himself secure from aggression, he has his buildings and mechanic shops enclosed by a fortification, mounting 12 pieces of artillery, and capable of containing a garrison of 1,000 men, which he may command at a day's warning. Captain Suter emigrated from Mississippi to California in 1838, a poor man, comparatively. He got a large grant of land from the Mexican government, and his enterprising spirit has done the rest. He is a Pole, we believe, by birth, but an adopted citizen of the United States, and the North American pioneer to California in the extension of the area of civilization."

The St. Louis Union says—

Capt. Suter formerly resided, we believe, in this city, and was born in Switzerland.

GEN. WOOL.—A correspondent of the Alton Telegraph writes from Camp Crockett, in Texas, under date of September 28, as follows. This shows the folly of the statement in Eastern papers, that Gen. Wool had been ordered to effect a junction with Gen. TAYLOR at San Luis Potosi, on the 24th October:

On Saturday, the 26th inst., the advance portion of the army, designed for the invasion of Mexico by this route, took up their line of march, under the command of Col. HARRY, of the Second Regiment of U. S. Dragoons. The detachment consisted of all the regular troops stationed here; Capt. Williams's company of Kentucky Life Guards; six companies of the Arkansas mounted men; Captains Morgan's and Prentiss's companies of the 1st, and Captains Raith's and Webb's of the 2nd regiment of the Illinois volunteers. To-morrow, Gen. Wool and his staff will proceed to join the advance; and orders have already been issued for the balance of the division, under the command of Inspector General Churchill, to push on as soon as possible. It is anticipated that means of transportation for the stores will be sufficient to warrant the moving of the troops remaining, on Tuesday, the first of October.

To THE PUBLIC.—What did we tell you a few weeks ago about the steamer Mary Pell? We cautioned travellers from taking passage on her, and were severely taken to task by the Captain, we believe, through the editor of the Lawrenceburg Whig paper, for so doing. Now read the following, from the Cincinnati Commercial of Nov. 9.

Explosion.—The Mary Pell, after undergoing various repairs, painting, &c., dropped down to the landing, Saturday, for the purpose of resuming her trips as a packet, between this city and Aurora. With a large number of passengers on board, about 12 o'clock Saturday, before the engineer had got up his quantum of steam, he noticed the escape of some of it at a part which had been newly repaired, and remarked to the brazier that he did not think it was strong enough, but being assured, as we are informed, it was, pressed his steam, and at a scolding of the engine, the boiler exploded in the very part referred to above. Although most of the passengers were much frightened, and many jumped overboard on the shore side, we are happy to state that all escaped injury except one woman and child, who were very slightly scalded.

When war was declared against Great Britain in June, 1812, Mr. Madison issued his proclamation announcing the fact. The appeal which he then made ought now to be felt by every American.

"I do moreover exhort all the good people of the United States, as they love their country; as they value the precious heritage derived from the virtue and valor of their fathers; as they feel the wrongs which have forced on them the last resort of injured nations; and as they consult the last means, under the blessing of Divine Providence, of abridging its calamities; that they exert themselves in preserving order, in promoting concord, in maintaining the authority and the efficacy of the laws, and in supporting and maintaining all laws which may be enacted by the constituted authorities for obtaining a speedy, a just, and an honorable peace."

Certain whigs ought to reflect on this exhortation.

JEFFERSON BARRACKS, Nov. 9, 1846.

To the Editors of the State Sentinel:

Sirs.—In looking over the columns of your paper, I see that a soldier was shot at Jefferson barracks, by the officer of the day, who was trying to quell a riot occasioned by one or two soldiers who were committing some depredations on the poultry circle of a farmer in this vicinity. It is true there was a riot of a small character, but as soon as it reached the officer of the day it was soon settled, without the loss of any blood, and without any resistance on the part of the soldiers. You will therefore please correct the statement, as such reports may prove injurious to the service, &c.

Very respectfully, &c.,

LI. L. RAQUET, U. S. A.

As to the matter referred to above, our authority was a St. Louis paper, from which we condensed the statement as published. We are very glad to learn that the statement was erroneous in the most important point.

Col. Bowles of the 2d Regiment Indiana volunteers has returned home on a furlough of sixty days. Capt. Eckles of the 1st Regiment Indiana volunteers, and Captains Grosman, Evans, Graham and Dennis of the 2d Regiment, and Lieut. Davis of the 1st, have also returned on a furlough of the same period, beside about 70 non-commissioned officers and privates belonging to the Indiana volunteers.

George M. Dallas has written an able and eloquent letter in reply to several gentlemen of Pennsylvania, who had addressed him a communication on the subject of the tariff, &c. We shall find occasion to publish it. He takes the right ground. The people will sustain him.

Private letters from Monterey state that Ampudia had retreated from Saltillo, and would make San Luis Potosi his rallying point, and where he was expected to make a stand, and perhaps be joined by Santa Anna.

The Law and Order Party.

The whigs of New York, in their election of John Young as Governor of that State, have finely illustrated the truth of their boasted claims of being, par excellence, the "law and order party." Hear what the New York Courier and Enquirer said of Young before the election:

"He was nominated (says the Courier) by the expediency portion of the whig party because he had trucked to Anti-Rentism, and by his votes in the Legislature, had demonstrated that for expediency he was and is prepared, at any moment, to interfere with the vested rights of the citizen and destroy the very basis of our social institutions, if by so doing he can secure the votes of a band of reckless, lawless and unprincipled ruffians, and thereby acquire for himself a distinguished political position."

"He stands before the public an open and avowed Anti-Rentier; an Agrarian—a radical legislator ready and willing to abrogate the sacred rights of free citizens! Or if not all this in reality, then he is a demagogue, who, to secure to himself the support of a set of men who have openly repudiated the most solemn contracts and recklessly committed deliberate murder in resistance of the laws, has violated the rights of the citizen and destroyed the rights of the citizen."

"His votes in the legislature have entitled him to the political support, and procured him the nomination, of those who committed deliberate murder in open resistance of the law."

That these denunciations were just may be inferred by the following extract of a speech of Horace Greeley, the editor of the Tribune, to the anti-renters of Columbia county:

"If the Anti-Renters shall now turn against him and defeat him, I believe it will prevent hereafter any body from daring to do anything to relieve them. He will be opposed by people who think his policy will destroy the Anti-Rent party. I do not know what the views of the men interested are of this, but in my own judgment, if they allow him to be destroyed on that side, while he is certain to be on the other, it will be proclaimed all over the State as a triumph over the Anti-Renters! It may carry the Legislature against them, and defeat them from a fair hearing hereafter. I am not a member of that party, but I believe their grievances to be real, and legislative relief to be practicable. I think I have done and said enough in the cause to enable me to claim a fair hearing. Although not a member of the Anti-Rent party: yet I advised the Anti-Rent party not to have Mr. Young elected, for it was certain to injure him in New York, and in other parts of the State a thousand votes, perhaps. I knew that his election was safe without that nomination, and I believed that he would have that vote any way. I feared, that while it would excite the opposition of those who occupied moral estates, and were large landholders, and thereby lose their votes to Mr. Young, it would, at the same time, be the means of destroying and dividing the Anti-Renters!"

A New York correspondent of the "Union" comments bitterly upon the result of this business of the whigs, as follows:

The result astounds every one, as well it may. The great State of New York wheeling into the arms of whigery by means of anti-rentism.

A party priding itself on its "law and order" proposals, its love of good government—hated of anarchy and sedition, professing a most holy horror of all lawlessness, and all things strictly gentle, to take to its arms the whole anti-rent faction—the murderers of sheriff Steele and others—the men who prowled about in masks, bidding defiance to laws, seizing upon officers of the State and—our sacred
